

Instrumental Music

Performance Rubric #1 - Fall 2011

	1	2	3	4
Note Accuracy (20)	The student has a limited understanding of the note vocabulary presented in the musical selection. There are numerous note errors that greatly hinder the performance.	The student has a broad understanding of the note vocabulary presented in the musical selection. There are several note errors present in the performance.	The student has a good understanding of the note vocabulary presented in the musical selection. However, there are a few note errors present in the performance.	The student has complete command of the note vocabulary presented in the musical selection. The project has been performed with very few, or zero, note errors.
Rhythmic Accuracy (20)	The student has a limited understanding of the rhythms presented in the musical selection. There are numerous rhythmic errors that greatly hinder the performance.	The student has a broad understanding of the rhythms presented in the musical selection. There are several rhythmic errors present in the performance.	The student has a good understanding of the rhythms presented in the musical selection. However, there are a few rhythmic errors present in the performance.	The student has complete command of the rhythms presented in the musical selection. The project has been performed with very few, or zero, rhythmic errors.
Basic Musicianship (10)	The musical performance reflects a lack of careful preparation. The student needs to address all of the musicianship areas outlined in column 4.	The musical performance demonstrates a below average level of musicianship. The student needs improvement in more than one area, as outlined in column 4.	The musical performance demonstrates a reasonable level of musicianship. The student needs to improve in one of the areas outlined in column 4.	The musical performance demonstrates a high level of musicianship. There is a strong sense of tempo control, flow, and style. (markings, dynamics, etc.)

