The 2017 San Dieguito Hall of Fame Inductee is 1949's Merna Brown, AKA Sri Mrinalini Mata

On Oct. 13, 2017, the Alumni Association inducted Sri Mrinalini Mata into San Dieguito's Hall of Fame during a ceremony immediately following our annual Founders Reception.

This great lady was known and beloved around the world as the fourth president of the Self-Realization Fellowship/ Yogoda Satsanga Society of India (SRF/YSS), a worldwide non-profit religious organization founded by Paramahansa Yogananda, who happened to be her mentor and teacher.

Not many people knew, however, that Mrinalini was also a Mustang! She had attended classes here as Merna Loy Brown ('49), while living in the Encinitas SRF ashram and studying to take her vows. She joined the SRF at the tender age of 15, on the day of her junior high graduation. (Her mother, Vera Brown (AKA Meera Mata), also entered the ashram and helped found and run the "Mushroomburgers" restaurant.)

Unfortunately, Sri Mrinalini Mata passed away on August 3, so her main secretary, assistant, and friend, Sister Iswari came to San Dieguito to accept the posthumous honor on Mrinalini's behalf. Sister Sarala, the monastic in charge of SRF retreat centers, accompanied S. Iswari.

Some of Mrinalini/Merna's former classmates attended, too, including her high school best friend, Joyce Darby Tighe ('49); and Encinitas City Council member Tony Kranz ('77) read a City proclamation declaring October 13 a special day in Sri Mrinalini Mata's honor.

S. Iswari told the crowd that this was actually her second visit to San Dieguito, the first having been a stealth trip inspired by an issue of Mustang Memories which happened to mention bricks dedicated to Mrinalini's favorite teacher, Gerald Jordan.

"When she read about the bricks," said S. Iswari, "she told me, 'I want to go and see the bricks!'

The next time they were in Encinitas, they stopped at the school, found the brick installation by the bell tower, and read each one until they found the ones for Mr. Jordan.

At one point in this adventure, Mrinalini looked around and told S. Iswari, "I feel like I should tell somebody that I am here!" (Editor's note: if only she had!)

S. Iswari also shared with attendees several of the SDUHS memories and stories Mrinalini had told her over

Meet Alumni Chair Sue Sieber Cooper ('66)

My fellow alumni,
I'm taking this opportunity to tell you how excited I am to be the chairman of San Dieguito's Alumni Committee, a great group of Mustangs who've committed their time each month to working on alumni projects and functions.

Our membership is growing and we are diligently working to provide information about all things Alumni.

We oversee and help raise funds for various Alumni projects that include: SDHS Veterans scholarships and maintenance of the Fallen Alumni Memorial, the Mustang Legacy Project bricks, preservation of school memorabilia, the Hall of Fame, assistance to class reunions, and our newsletter, website, Facebook page and monthly e-blasts.

All of this is possible thanks to YOUR support of the SDA Foundation (SDAF), which has sponsored our Alumni Association for ten years. Thanks to SDAF, membership in the Alumni Association is FREE, so your tax-deductible donations help continue our work!

For example, you can help by supporting the SDHS Veterans Scholarship, given in the names of our Fallen Alumni. Students receive a $500 scholarship and a photo and biography of the fallen alum as a way of keeping alive the memory of those Mustangs who gave their all for their country.

Please remember we are very limited in space in this newsletter. If you go to our site at sdafoundation.com/alumni you will get a lot more information and pictures. (Or visit our Facebook page at facebook.com/sandieguitaoalumni/).

One of my favorite things to do is attend Class Reunions—what a blast! I get to see a lot of old friends and meet so many new ones! I feel so fortunate to have attended San Dieguito, a school with a long and great history. Over eighty years old and it's still a great school.

We will all be Mustangs forever!
Go, Mustangs!

Sue Sieber Cooper ('66)

the years, starting with her very first days at the ashram in the summer after junior high. She did the chores all postulants had to do, like cooking and cleaning, but it wasn't long before Paramahansa Yogananda—the author of Autobiography of a Yogi—set her on a specific educational path.

"He had recognized your Merna—our Mrinalini Mata—as one he could build on for the future," said S. Iswari, "because of her attunement, spirituality, and high intellectual involvement."

The celebrated yogi began Merna's training with numerous reading and writing exercises. He also encouraged her to study Shakespeare.

At the same time, SDUHS teacher Gerald Jordan also noticed Merna's exceptional intellect when she arrived in one of his classes.

"He had given the students a little aptitude test to see where they were in their studies," said S. Iswari. He told Merna she would be bored in his class and offered to provide her with an independent study program.

He asked her, "Is there something you would like to work on that you feel would help you?"

Remembering Yogananda's advice, Merna chose to focus on Shakespeare. Mr. Jordan arranged it for her and she spent many hours in the SDUHS library studying and writing papers for him.

"She deeply respected Mr. Jordan," said S. Iswari. "She often talked about him and about how much he helped her in her education and in her literary ability."

Mrinalini also enjoyed Mr. Jordan's trademark sense of humor. Once she wrote a paper and illustrated it with a dagger, an element in her paper's topic. Mr. Jordan graded the paper and returned it with more artwork. "He had drawn little drops of blood dripping from the knife," said S. Iswari.

Meanwhile, Yogananda became involved at school as many San Dieguito parents and guardians have done throughout the years, like the time he brought his rock collection on campus as an exhibit.

"They set up tables," said S. Iswari, "and he set out his rocks and he shared them with all the students."

Two years before her SDUHS graduation, Yogananda personally conferred upon Merna her final vows and gave her the monastic name "Mrinalini," a word symbolizing "the purity of the lotus flower, an ancient symbol of spiritual unfoldment."

She continued her studies at San Dieguito (where she still went by "Merna"), helped her mother in the Mushroomburgers restaurant, and developed an enduring friendship with classmate Joyce Darby ('49), who was invited by S. Iswari to join her in sharing her memories of Merna with the Hall of Fame ceremony attendees.

"Merna had lovely, brown, naturally curly hair that I was very jealous of," she told the audience. "Loy was her middle name and there was an actress by the name of Myrna Loy at that time, so she and I had a little thing about that, too."

Joyce remembered eating lunch on the grass with Merna and visiting her at the Hermitage where she got to stay the night with Merna and her mother. Once she was invited to come and meet Yogananda himself.

"Mrinalini had told Paramahansa Yogananda Ji about her best friend Joyce," said S. Iswari. "And he asked, 'How are her grades?'"

When Merna told him that Joyce got straight As, Yogananda told her, "I want you to get straight As, too!"

Of course, Merna did just that. She appears in the California Scholarship Federation members photo in the 1949 Hoofprint. (As does Joyce.)

Yogananda attended the Class of 1949's graduation ceremony and Merna/Mrinalini went on to serve SRF for over 40 years, not only as the editor-in-chief of all publications but also as SRF's vice president before she became president of the global organization in 2011. "She always told me she remembered her time here and very much valued her education," said S. Iswari.

Meanwhile, Joyce married Navy man Bruce Tighe. They moved a lot and Joyce wasn't able to come to many class reunions. "The few I came to, Merna was never there."

Their paths did cross again in San Francisco, where they were able to meet for their very own reunion.

"Merna and I had a that kind of friendship that you pick up like a lot of us do here. You know? We don't see each other for ten years but when we come back, wow! The years just drop by!"

"She remembered you as her friend," S. Iswari told Joyce. Joyce smiled and put her hand over her heart.

A brick in Merna/Mrinalini's honor will be installed in Phase 6 of the Mustang Legacy Project in Fall 2018. Phase 6 already contains a brick mentioning Merna's favorite teacher, Mr. Jordan, sponsored by Virginia Hawkins Higgins ('52).

The Alumni Association will install two bricks together.

Alumni give back to San Dieguito

On May 25, Isaac Lopez ('62) presented the SDHS Veterans Scholarship to Nicholas Engert ('17). This $500 scholarship was funded by the Class of 1966 in the name of Isaac's brother Victor ('66).

Tom Cozens ('66) presented a SDHS Veterans scholarship in the name of Jimmy Mitchell ('59) to Nicholas Urbina ('17).

Capt. Richard Suttie ('75), US Navy, (ret), gave the keynote address at our May 27 Fallen Alumni Memorial Day service. Family members, friends and volunteers read the names and short biographies of the fallen. (Photo by George Stimson.)

Greg Meyer ('66) and John Meyer ('71) present the Vincent and Lenor Meyer Scholarship to Rosa Tlatempa '17.

The Meyers created this scholarship to honor their parents; it supports seniors who hope to become teachers. (Photo by George Stimson.)

What teacher inspired you?

We asked alumni to tell us about those teachers who had a significant impact on their lives. Here's what Jim Henderson ('55) had to say. If you'd like to contribute to this column, send us your submission in the enclosed envelope or write sda.alumni@gmail.com

I was in my junior year at San Dieguito and by no means considered a scholar. The only As I got were in things like Wood Shop, Metal Shop, Electric Shop, and Gym. All the rest, Cs and Ds normally.

The only exciting thing about school to me was playing left-guard on the varsity football team, the Mustangs.

One day after my algebra class was over, the teacher, Mr. Stuckenschneider, stopped me for a little talk. He said: "Jim, what do you think the teachers talk about in the teachers' lounge?"

I guessed, "Food?"

He said, "No, we talk about our students, and I wish you would give me a break and apply yourself. It would really help me when am sticking up for you in there."

Well, I was dumbfounded. No one had ever talked like that to me, it made me feel like I wasn't alone. Like there was somebody on my side. (I'm an only child, so I spent most of my life alone.)

All of a sudden I had a good reason to try. I had someone counting on me and I was determined not to let him down.

Pretty soon the extra effort paid off. My whole attitude toward facts, data, knowledge, etc., changed. I took pride in knowing my axioms and formulas. I loved numbers. They were the one thing in my life that I could always count on.

And then it happened! I got my first academic "A" and it was in algebra. It wasn't long before the other classes followed suit. And by the time I graduated, I was ready for college.

But for many other reasons, I joined the Navy. There I was trained in electronics and when I got my discharge I started going to night school. Six years later I graduated from FIT as an electrical engineer. I stayed in it all my working life and eventually joined NASA to help put a man on the moon with the Apollo Program. I was on Apollo missions #3 to #14.

So that's my story. From left guard to rocket scientist thanks to one good teacher, Mr. Stuckenschneider.
